

Native American Artifacts

SS-EP-5.1.1 Students will use a variety of primary and secondary sources to interpret the past.

Native Americans lived in Kentucky many years before the settlers came here. As part of their everyday life, they had many tools for hunting, gathering, and protection.

In the box below, draw a picture of what the tools for hunting, gathering, and protection looked like.